

Avocado Publications of the Year

AVOCADO DISEASES IN FLORIDA—by H. E. Stevens and R. B. Piper. Circular No. 582; U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Dated May, 1941; 40 pages, well illustrated.

AVOCADO PRODUCTION IN THE UNITED STATES—by H. P. Traub, Carl S. Pomeroy, T. R. Robinson, and W. W. Aldrich. Circular No. 620; U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Dated September, 1941; 28 pages, well illustrated. Discusses avocado culture in Florida and California in separate sections. Select bibliography.

ROOT DISTRIBUTION OF YOUNG AVOCADO TREES ON BENCH TERRACES—by Maurice Donnelly. Dated September, 1941; Proceedings, American Society for Horticultural Science, Vol. 39. 9 pages (101-109). Illustrated. Experiments performed at Capistrano, California.

THE CLIMACTERIC RISE IN RESPIRATION RATE OF THE FUERTE AVOCADO FRUIT—by J. B. Biale. Dated September, 1941; Proceedings, American Society for Horticultural Science, Vol. 39. 6 pages (137-142). Illustrated by graphs. Technical.